ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

In constructing this guide, a number of handbooks from various institutions were consulted. Permission to use information from these institutes has been granted. The authors would like to thank and acknowledge the following institutes:

- David Rudd – University of Bolton
- Geoffrey Ward – University of Essex
- Information Literacy Team – University of Leeds
- Learning and Information Services (LIS) – University of Wolverhampton
- Skills for Learning – Leeds Metropolitan University
- Sue Taylor – University of Gloucestershire
- Virginia Bell – Queen Margaret University
- Academic Services – Bournemouth University

The authors would also like to thank members of staff from the Institute of Education and the Faculty of Health, Psychology and Social Care for their advice and recommendations.

Special thanks to Janet Rooney for the design of this handbook.

DISCLAIMER

This Harvard referencing handbook is designed to be used specifically by undergraduate students studying at Manchester Metropolitan University. However, all students are advised to check with their programme team as to which style of referencing is required as a few departments do not use the Harvard system.

Postgraduate students and those who are submitting material for publication should adhere strictly to guidelines or specifications provided by their supervisor or publishers of the relevant journal.

WHY SHOULD I REFERENCE?

The purpose of referencing is to enable others to find the information that you have used in your assignment.

You MUST cite and reference all the information that you have used in the main text of your assignment. It is important to acknowledge the work of others if you have referred to it in your assignments; if you do not, you will be accused of PLAGIARISM.

PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism is a failure to acknowledge another person’s work or idea and claiming this idea as your own. This is deemed as cheating/academic misconduct and is treated as a SERIOUS OFFENCE. See appendix 6 of the ‘Assessment Regulations for Undergraduate and Taught Postgraduate Programmes of Study’ in the programme regulations of your student handbook.

You can find more information on avoiding plagiarism in the Skills Online module in your Moodle Student Support Area.

WHAT ARE CITATIONS, REFERENCES AND A BIBLIOGRAPHY?

CITATION

Acknowledging other people’s work/ideas within your assignment or in the main body of your text is called ‘citing’. You will often come across citations when you are reading books or journals.

REFERENCES

This is a list of sources that you have cited in the main text of your assignment. This list is produced at the end of your assignment.

BIBLIOGRAPHY

This is a list of sources that you have read but have not cited in the main text of your assignment. This list is also produced at the end of your assignment after the reference section; HOWEVER, you only need to produce a bibliography alongside a reference list if you have been asked to do so.

REFERENCING LIST FORMAT

ALL sources that have been mentioned in the main text need to be listed, alphabetically, in the referencing section using the correct format as listed in this guide.

If you have two or more authors with the same name you list them in alphabetical order according to the author’s first name:

EXAMPLE

If you have a single author, where the surname is the same but the publication year is different the sources should be listed in chronological order with the earliest publication first.

EXAMPLE

If you have two or more sources where the author’s surname is the same, but one publication is written by a single author and the other is written by more than one author, the single authored publication will be listed first. This will be the case regardless of the author’s first name.

EXAMPLE

In the above example Jameson, R. comes before Jameson, K. This is because a joint publication is always placed after the single author of the same name.

QUOTES

GENERAL RULES WHEN USING QUOTES

- When using quotes the wording that you have used in your assignment needs to be EXACTLY the same as the text from the source.
- Quotation marks must be used at the beginning and end of the quote so the reader knows where the quote begins and ends.
- Quotes should not be altered into italics, underlined or emboldened unless you want to highlight/emphasise a specific word in the quote. If you do cite the quote as: (Egan, 2002:186 emphasis added) to show you have altered it.
- If you do not use the whole sentence, make sure you use ellipses which are the following: ‘...’ to indicate which part of the sentence is missing; these may be at the start of the quote, the end of the quote, or in the middle if you have shortened the wording.
- If you come across a mistake in a quote and do not want this mistake to be attributed to you, you can add the term [sic] next to the error.
- If you want to insert words into a quote you can add square brackets [ ] around the additional text but remember the sentence must make grammatical sense. It is important to use square brackets and not round brackets around the extra text because this indicates that this is your addition and not the authors.

LENGTH OF QUOTES

LONG QUOTES

Quotes longer than 20 words should be indented and placed in a separate paragraph.

You DO NOT need to place quotation marks around the quote if it is classified as a long quote.

Instead of:

For an individual to manage their workload effectively, a plan can be devised to tackle daily, weekly and monthly commitments. Whitehead and Mason (2003:27) have argued ‘the fundamental rules of balancing commitments and responsibilities are to anticipate problems, communicate with others, plan thoroughly, implement proactively, evaluate effectively and amend accordingly. Each aspect that has been mentioned will be addressed...

SHORT QUOTES

Quotes 20 words in length or shorter can be embedded into the text. You MUST put quotation marks around the text that you are inserting into your assignment. Remember, the sentence needs to make grammatical sense.

Instead of:

For an individual to manage their workload effectively, a plan can be devised to tackle daily, weekly and monthly commitments. Within this framework, individuals can identify issues that:

...arise in the course of your study and prioritise them with the most serious on top (Whitehead and Mason, 2003:27).

Write:

For an individual to manage their workload effectively, a plan can be devised to tackle daily, weekly and monthly commitments. Within this framework, individuals can identify issues that ‘...arise in the course of your study and prioritise them with the most serious on top’ (Whitehead and Mason, 2003:27). By setting time aside and identifying possible events that may occur...

The quote used in the above example is not the beginning of the original sentence. Thus, the ellipses ‘...’ have been used to illustrate that the quote is only part of the original sentence.

CITATIONS: GENERAL RULES

The only information you will usually need when citing within the text is the author's surname and the year of publication. Please bear in mind:

- If there is no author but there is an organisation's name you use this instead.
- If there is no date state these words instead of the year.

For more complex citations examples are given next to the specific sources:

ONE AUTHOR:

Surnames or organisation’s name and the year of publication.

EXAMPLE

It is clearly stated by Cottrell (2005) that...

...as this research shows (Association of Illustrators, 2011)

According to the Business Enterprise and Regulatory Reform (no date)....

TWO AUTHORS:

Both authors’ surnames or two organisations’
names and the year of publication.

EXAMPLE

Lightbown and Spada (1993) believe that...

THREE OR MORE AUTHORS:

Surname of the first author only followed by et al. and the year of publication.

EXAMPLE

It has been found by Burrows et al. (2009)...

DIRECT QUOTES: GENERAL RULES

When citing a direct quote you need to add in the page number or the word ‘online’, if you’ve used an online source, next to the citation. For more complex quotes examples are given next to the specific sources:

DIRECT QUOTES WITH PAGE NUMBERS

When citing a direct quote from a book you also need the page number which is written after the year in the following format:

EXAMPLE

When critically evaluating other’s work it’s important to use ‘tact and a constructive approach...’ (Cottrell 2005:97).

DIRECT QUOTES FROM ONLINE SOURCES

As many online sources have no page number when quoting directly you need to state that the information has been found online in the following way:

EXAMPLE

According to the Business Enterprise and Regulatory Reform (no date: online) pay-as-you go ensured that ‘...mobile phones are one of the most inclusive technologies’.

For more information on how to present direct quotes please see p.6.

CITING AND REFERENCING SPECIFIC SOURCES

BOOKS

IMPORTANT: Electronic books will be referenced in the same manner as a hard-copy of a book. This is because an electronic book is just a scanned copy of the original book. This means the information in the paper copy will be exactly the same as in the electronic copy.

CITING BOOKS

When citing books by paraphrasing or using direct quotes the information will be presented as shown on pages 7-8.

REFERENCING BOOKS

Key Points

- If you have used et al. in your citation you need to list all authors in your reference list.
- The year of publication, for a book, refers to the year the book was first published and not the reprint date. If you are presented with a list of years, you need to select the year the book was first published.
- You may find that the place of publication lists a number of locations from all over the world in which case you need to select the first location because this would be the place the book has been published.

- If there is no edition listed leave this out; if the book is listed as 1st edition also leave this out.

Taking the above into account, to reference a published book you need to include the following information:

Author’s surname/s, Initial/s. (Year of publication)
Title of book (in italics). Edition if applicable,
Place of publication: Publisher.

EXAMPLES

CHAPTER IN AN EDITED BOOK

IMPORTANT: The following rules DO NOT apply if you are referencing information in a chapter from a book entirely written by the same author/s. These rules only apply when the book is edited and the chapters are written by different authors.

CITING A CHAPTER FROM AN EDITED BOOK

When citing chapters from an edited book by paraphrasing or using direct quotes the information will be presented as shown on pages 7-8.

Please bear in mind that you only need to cite the author of the chapter whose idea you have used in your assignment. For instance, if you have read a chapter by David Dickson in a book edited by Owen Hargie you use Dickson’s name.

The book entitled ‘The handbook of communication skills’ is edited by Owen Hargie. The book was published in 2006 and there are a number of different chapters that are authored by other people. You do not need to mention, in the main body of your assignment, that the chapter was found in Hargie’s book because this information will be provided in the reference list.

ONE OR TWO AUTHORS

Surname/s of chapter author and year of publication

EXAMPLE

Dickson (2006) asserts that to try to define or conceptualise ‘reflecting’ as an interactive skill is very complex.

THREE OR MORE AUTHORS:

Surname of the first author only followed by et al. and the year of publication.

EXAMPLE

Randall et al. (2006) state that non-verbal behaviour causes people to...
DIRECT QUOTES

When citing a direct quote from a book chapter you also need the page number which is written after the year in the following format:

EXAMPLE

Dickson (2006:167) believes reflection can be beset by problems such as ‘... conceptual confusion, terminological inconsistency, and definitional imprecision...’

---

REFERENCING A CHAPTER FROM AN EDITED BOOK

To reference the work of an author who has written a chapter in an edited book you need to include the following information:

Surname of the author/s who wrote the chapter, Initial/s. (Year of publication) ‘Title of the chapter.’ In (in italics) Surname of the editor/s, Initial/s. (ed/s.) Title of book (in italics). Edition if applicable., Place of publication: Publisher, first and last page numbers of the chapter.

EXAMPLES

---

JOURNAL ARTICLES

IMPORTANT: An electronic journal is referenced in the same way a paper copy of the journal is referenced. This means the information, in the paper copy, will be exactly the same as in the electronic copy. DO NOT reference an electronic journal as an internet source or online source.

CITING A JOURNAL ARTICLE

When citing journal articles by paraphrasing or using direct quotes the information will be presented as shown on pages 7-8.

REFERENCING A JOURNAL ARTICLE

Key Points:

- If you have used et al. in your citation you need to list all authors in your reference list.
- If there is no volume/issue number available instead use the month or season in which the journal was published.
- Ensure you use pp. and state the page numbers of the whole article. If you only state the first page number this will give the impression that the journal article is only a page long.
- If there is no author’s name present on an article use the publication title in place of this.

Taking the above into account, to reference a journal article you need to include the following information:

Author’s surname/s, Initial/s. (Year of publication) ‘Title of journal article.’ Title of journal (in italics), Volume number (Issue number) first and last page numbers of whole journal article.
EXAMPLES

Income Data Services (2008) 'Establishing an employer brand.' IDS HR studies, (872), June, pp. 2-8. [volume number missing – issue number listed first, before month]

INTERNET SOURCES: WEBPAGES

CITING WEBPAGES

When citing websites by paraphrasing or using direct quotes the information will be presented as shown on pages 7-8.

Please note that if the webpage has no date you use the wording ‘no date’, where you would usually write the year, to indicate this.

INTERNET SOURCES: PDF DOCUMENTS

IMPORTANT: This referencing format should NOT be used to reference journal articles that have been found on electronic databases. Electronic journal articles should be referenced in the same way as paper copies; see section on ‘journal articles’ on p. 10.

WEBPAGE WITH AUTHOR

Author’s surname/s, Initial/s. (Year of publication) Title of page (in italics). Name of organisation. [Online] [Date accessed] URL

EXAMPLE

WEBAGE WITH NO AUTHOR

Name of organisation. (Year of publication) Title of page (in italics). [Online] [Date accessed] URL

EXAMPLE

CITING PDF DOCUMENTS

When citing PDF documents by paraphrasing or using direct quotes the information will be presented as shown on pages 7-8.

REFERENCING PDF DOCUMENTS

Key points:

- If the document does not state both a place of publication and the name of a publisher, you will need to say these details are unavailable and write: Publisher details not available.
- If only one of the publication details is missing you can use the following:
  - if the place of publication is not provided use: Unknown place of publication
  - if the publisher information is not provided use: Unknown publisher

If you would like to reference a PDF document that you have found on the internet then you will need to do so as follows:

Author’s surname/s, Initial/s. or Name of organisation. (Year of publication) Title (in italics). Edition if applicable. Place of publication if available: Publisher if ascertainable. [Online] [Date accessed] Available from: URL

SECONDARY SOURCES

IMPORTANT: Secondary sources are authors who have been cited in the book/journal etc. that you have read but whose original work you have not read.

CITING SECONDARY SOURCES

When citing within the text you need to include the surname of the author whose idea you are using and the surname of the author whose book/journal you found the information from.

EXAMPLE

A better way of appreciating the skills of reflective practice is to use Burns and Bulman’s (2000) framework. This involves a five-element scheme for reflection in which the first is self awareness. Self-awareness is important for many walks of life and it is vital in nursing.

If you wanted to mention Burns and Bulman’s framework based on the information you have read in Whitehead and Mason’s book you would cite the authors like so:

Burns and Bulman (2000, cited in Whitehead and Mason, 2003) have developed a 5 step framework for reflection. The first stage of this framework focuses on self awareness.

In the above example you have shown that you are using Burns and Bulman’s (2000) framework on reflection in your assignment. However, because you did not find this information from the original paper by Burns and Bulman that was published in 2000, you have made it clear that the information was found in Whitehead and

Author’s surname/s, Initial/s. (Year of publication) ‘Title of journal article.’ Title of journal (in italics), Volume number (Issue number) Page numbers of whole journal article.

NEWSPAPERS

CITING A NEWSPAPER ARTICLE

When citing newspaper articles by paraphrasing or using direct quotes the information will be presented as shown on pages 7-8.

REFERENCING A PAPER COPY NEWSPAPER ARTICLE

Key points:

- If you have used information from the supplement section you must state that you have done so, as shown in the first example below.
- Some newspapers produce different editions throughout the day (e.g. First edition, Second edition, Evening edition etc.); if your copy has an edition you must state this, as shown in the first example below.
- If there is no author then use the publication title in place of this.

EXAMPLE

REFERENCING AN ONLINE NEWSPAPER ARTICLE

When referencing a newspaper article that you have found online, you need to put the information in the following format:

Author’s surname/s, Initial/s. (Year of publication) ‘Title of article.’ Name of newspaper (in italics). [Online] Date of publication. [Date accessed] URL

EXAMPLE

IMPORTANT: Citing and referencing information from lecture notes is not recommended by certain courses. Please check with your programme team to clarify whether this is acceptable practice before you use this source.

CITING LECTURE NOTES

When citing lecture notes by paraphrasing or using direct quotes the information will be presented as shown on pages 7-8.

REFERENCING LECTURE NOTES

Key points:

- If the lecture notes do not have a title then write ‘no title’ where the title should be.
- If there is no place of publication and publishing information it is safe to assume these will be the university you attend.
- If you do not have the lecture number or module name you can leave this information out of the reference.

Using the guidelines above you can reference lecture notes like so:

Author’s surname/s, Initial/s. (Year of production) Title of the lecture notes (in italics). Place of publication: Publisher. Number of pages in handout, distribution date, the lecture number, module name.

EXAMPLE

GUEST PRESENTATION

CITING A GUEST PRESENTATION

When citing guest presentations by paraphrasing or using direct quotes the information will be presented as shown on pages 7-8.

Please note that it is the presenter’s surname/s you will use.

You would present a direct quote like so:

DIRECT QUOTES

And Jones (2012: presentation) prophetically stated that ‘...the two departments would merge by April this year’.

REFERENCING A GUEST PRESENTATION

If you would like to use information from a guest seminar/lecture/presentation the information in your reference list would be presented like so:

Author’s surname/s, Initial/s. (Year of presentation) ‘Title of lecture.’ Name of institution where the presentation has taken place, City of presentation, Date of presentation.

EXAMPLES

When using information from conferences you may need to reference:

- The whole conference proceedings (this would usually only appear in a bibliography rather than as a cited source, as you would normally cite from a conference paper)
- Conference paper (published in conference proceedings)
- Paper presented at conference (unpublished)

CITING A CONFERENCE PAPER (PUBLISHED OR UNPUBLISHED) OR CONFERENCE PROCEEDINGS

When citing conference papers or proceedings by paraphrasing or using direct quotes the information will be presented as shown on pages 7-8.

Please note that when using information from conference papers, you need to cite the author (for published material) or presenter (for unpublished material) of the paper and not the organisation who held the conference or the editor of the conference proceedings (for published conference proceedings).

When referencing conference proceedings, you need to include the following information:

Name of organisation. (Year of publication) Title of conference (including number of annual conference if given) (in italics). Volume number if applicable. Location of conference (including venue and city), date of conference. Editor/s (or Chair’s) Surname, Initial (if given). Place of publication: Publisher.

EXAMPLE

REFERENCING A PUBLISHED CONFERENCE PAPER

When referencing a paper from conference proceedings you need to include the following information:

Author’s surname/s, Initial/s. (Year of publication) ‘Title of conference paper.’ In (in italics) Name of organisation. Title of conference (including number of annual conference if given) (in italics). Volume number if applicable. Location of conference (including venue and city), date of conference. Editor’s (or Chair’s) Surname, Initial. (if given) Place of publication: Publisher, article page numbers.
EXAMPLES

REFERENCING AN UNPUBLISHED CONFERENCE PAPER

To reference an unpublished conference paper you need to include the following information:

Author’s surname/s, initial/s. (Year of conference) ‘Title of paper.’ Paper presented at: Title of conference (in italics). Location of conference (including venue and city), date of conference. [NB: no page numbers are needed]

EXAMPLE

GOVERNMENT COMMAND PAPERS

Command papers include: White Papers, which present a statement of the government’s policy; Green Papers, which are discussion papers or reports that are presented to the Royal commission or departmental committees.

It is also useful to know that sometimes the word ‘command’, on command papers and in some reference lists may be abbreviated to ‘cmd’ or ‘cm’.

CITING COMMAND PAPERS

When using a command paper you can cite the information by referring to the government department/organisation for which the publication was produced or the chairperson’s name, if there is one. The chairperson’s name is normally used if the report is commonly known by this person’s name but you still need to include the organisational information.

EXAMPLE

An abbreviation of the department’s name must be introduced, when you first refer to the department, if you do not want to repeat the department’s full name throughout the assignment. This can be shown as follows:

The Department of Education and Science (DES, 1985) claims that… (The government department name has been used and has been abbreviated to DES in the brackets)

OR

The Swann Report (Department of Education and Science, DES, 1985) has found that… (In this example, the chairperson’s name has been used, thus the department’s name must be mentioned) to show that this department commissioned the report. Again, an abbreviation has been included.

If you have already abbreviated the department’s name the command paper will be cited as follows:

The DES (1985) claims that... \{The government department’s name has been abbreviated to DES\}

OR

The Swann Report (DES, 1985) has found that... \{The chairperson’s name has been used and the department’s name has been abbreviated and inserted into the bracket along with the year\}

DIRECT QUOTES

When citing a direct quote from a command paper you need the page number, which is written after the year in the following format:

EXAMPLE

The Swann Report (DES, 1985:399) highlights that terminology was already shifting and ‘...some educationists now talk of home and/or community or national languages rather than mother tongues’.

REFERENCING COMMAND PAPERS

Key points:

- Most government publications will have an official reference number. If the paper you have read does not have a number, do not make one up, instead leave this field blank.
- Usually, government White and Green papers are published by either Her Majesty’s Stationery Office (HMSO) or by The Stationery Office (TSO). The abbreviated versions of the publisher’s name can be used in the reference list.

Using the above information you reference a command paper as follows:

Government department/organisation for which the publication was produced. (Year of publication) Title \textit{(in italics)}. The word or an abbreviation of the word ‘Command’. Official reference number if there is one, place of publication: Publisher (Name of chairperson if there is one and the word Report).

EXAMPLES

ACTS OF PARLIAMENT

CITING AN ACT OF PARLIAMENT

When citing Acts in the main text of an assignment you must write the full name of the Act and the year.

EXAMPLES

According to the 1996 Housing Act, there are....

The Charities Act 1960 clearly stated that....

DIRECT QUOTES
When citing a direct quote from an Act of Parliament you need the page number, which is written in brackets after the full citation in the following format:

EXAMPLE

The 1996 Housing Act (13) states that tenants have the right to purchase their property as long as ‘the dwelling was provided with public money and has remained in the social rented sector’

IMPORTANT: Unlike the other referencing formats the year of publication does not need to be placed in brackets as this forms part of the title of the Act.

REFERENCING AN ACT OF PARLIAMENT

When referencing an Act, the following information must be presented:

Title of the Act and Year (chapter number of the act; abbreviated to ‘c.’) Place of publication: Publisher.

EXAMPLE

Housing Act 1996 (c.52) London: HMSO.

IMPORTANT: Unlike the other referencing formats the year of publication does not need to be placed in brackets as this forms part of the title of the Act.

ACTS INTRODUCED PRIOR TO 1963

If you are using an Act that was introduced prior to 1963, you will need to include some additional information alongside the chapter number.

EXAMPLE

Title of the Act and Year (Year of reign of the monarch at the time the Act was introduced, the monarch’s name which can be abbreviated, chapter number of the Act) Place of publication: Publisher.

EXAMPLE

Statistics of Trade Act 1947 (10&11 Geo. 6, c.39) London: HMSO.

MARKET RESEARCH REPORTS

CITING MARKET RESEARCH REPORTS

When citing market research reports by paraphrasing or using direct quotes the information will be presented as shown on pages 7-8.

Please note that to cite a market report you will generally have to use the organisation’s name as an author name is usually not present.

REFERENCING PAPER COPY MARKET RESEARCH REPORTS

To reference market research reports you need the following information:

Name of research company or organisation. (Year of publication) Title of report (in italics). Date of report (month and year- if available). Edition if available. Place of publication: Publisher. Report number if applicable.

EXAMPLE

REFERENCING ONLINE MARKET RESEARCH REPORTS

Key points:

- If the URL for the webpage where the report was found requires you to login with a username and password, you need to use the homepage of the market report database in your reference, as in the example below. This will be the first page you view after you have logged in to the database.

Using the above information when referencing a market research report that you have accessed from an online database such as Mintel, you need to put the information in the following format:

Name of research company or organisation. (Year of publication) Title of report (in italics). Date of report (month and year – if available). [Online] [Date accessed] URL

EXAMPLE

ANNUAL REPORTS

CITING ANNUAL REPORTS

When citing annual reports by paraphrasing or using direct quotes the information will be presented as shown on pages 7-8.

REPORTS: OTHERS

CITING GENERAL REPORTS

When citing general reports by paraphrasing the information will be presented as shown in the section Citations: general rules on p. 7.
REFERENCING PAPER COPY GENERAL REPORTS

Key points:

- If there is no report code or number on the report that you have used leave this field blank as in the example below.

If you want to reference a report that is not a market research or annual report you must present the information in the following manner:

Author’s surname/s, Initial/s. or Name of organisation. (Year of publication) Title of report (in italics). Place of publication: Publisher. (Report code and number).

EXAMPLE

REFERENCING ONLINE GENERAL REPORTS

If you want to reference a report that is not a market research or annual report that you have found on the internet you must present the information in the following manner:

Author’s surname/s, Initial/s. or Name of organisation. (Year of publication) Title of report (in italics). [Online] [Date accessed] URL

EXAMPLE

RIBA. (2011) Good design – it all adds up. [Online][Accessed on 24th April 2012]

http://www.architecture.com/Files/RIBAHoldings/PolicyAndInternationalRelations/Policy/Gooddesignitalladdsup.pdf

RELIGIOUS TEXTS

CITING RELIGIOUS TEXTS

To cite a religious text you would do so as follows, whether or not it is a direct quote or a paraphrase:

Name of religious text, Book, text marker (eg. chapter: verse)

EXAMPLE

...is a Bible quote often stated (John 3:16).

...is a tenet of the faith (The Koran, The Cow 2:238)

A powerful affirmation is found in the Torah (Devarim, 4:35)...

REFERENCING RELIGIOUS TEXTS

Full title of text, including sub-title. (Year of publication) Place of publication: Publisher.

EXAMPLES

When citing dissertations by paraphrasing or using direct quotes the information will be presented as shown on pages 7-8.

Key points:

- Degree statement refers to whether the dissertation/thesis was for the award of B.A, B.Sc., M.A., M.Sc., M.Sc. by research, M.phil., Ph.D.

Using the above information you reference a dissertation as follows:

EXAMPLE

When citing DVDs/videos that have NOT been found online you will need to cite the information as follows:

You must state the title and year when citing information taken from a DVD/video. If the title of the DVD/video is long, it can be abbreviated as long as the full title is initially listed in your assignment, as in the first example below.

EXAMPLE

To kill a burglar: the Tony Martin story (TM story, 2006) addressed the issue of...

The Matrix Reloaded (2003) highlights...

To quote directly you need the time at which the words were spoken within the film or programme.

EXAMPLE

...states Vine, ‘the classroom can’t compete with the PlayStation’ (Panorama: is TV bad for my kids, 2007: 15mins 36)
Type of media, either [DVD] or [Videocassette]
Place of distribution: Distribution Company.

EXAMPLES

ONLINE VIDEOS

CITING ONLINE VIDEOS

To cite videos that have been found online such as YouTube videos, you will need to cite the information as follows:

Creator/owner and year

EXAMPLE

This video (MMU Degree Skills, 2010) briefly illustrates how to avoid.....

DIRECT QUOTES

To quote directly you need the time at which the words were spoken within the film or programme.

EXAMPLE

Using the North West Film Archive would be ‘a fascinating way to get to know a new city better’ (MMU Library, 2010: 1min 56)

---

REFERENCING ONLINE VIDEOS

If you have used information from an online video in your assignment, for example from YouTube, you can reference the information as follows:

Owner/creator. (date) Title. (in italics) [Online] [Access date] URL

EXAMPLE

---

ONLINE IMAGES OR PHOTOS

CITING ONLINE IMAGES OR PHOTOS

When citing images the information will be presented as shown on pages 7-8. Instead of author’s name/s you will use the creator or organisation’s name.

REFERENCING ONLINE IMAGES OR PHOTOS

Key points:

- Occasionally, a year of publication may not be provided. If this is the case, you must not make up the year or state the year you accessed the work, instead you must state there is (no date).
- If no title is available, instead provide a brief description of the image/photo. If there are a number of images/photos on the page where you accessed the information and they all show the same image, you do not need to distinguish between them. However you must make sure you do provide a description.
LEAFLETS/POSTERS

IMPORTANT: Please check with your programme team to assess the suitability of using these sources in your work, as they may not be an acceptable form of reference for some programmes.

CITING LEAFLETS/POSTERS

When citing leaflets or posters the information will be presented as shown on pages 7-8. If there is no creator’s name on the item use the organisation’s name that produced it.

REFERENCING LEAFLETS/POSTERS

If you are using these sources, you should reference them as follows:

---

EXAMPLES

Oxford Illustrated Science Encyclopaedia. (no date) Volcano. [Online image] [Accessed on 16th February 2009]

---

CITING LEAFLETS/POSTERS

When citing leaflets or posters the information will be presented as shown on pages 7-8. If there is no creator’s name on the item use the organisation’s name that produced it.

REFERENCING LEAFLETS/POSTERS

If you are using these sources, you should reference them as follows:

---

EXAMPLES

Counselling Service. (no date) Need to talk? [Leaflet] Manchester: Manchester Metropolitan University.

The National Student Survey. (no date) Be heard. [Poster] Reception area, Gaskell campus: Date viewed 29 January 2009.

If an author or organisation’s name is not present then you will need to present the reference as below:

EXAMPLE

Description of the source (in italics). (Year of publication) [Type of source e.g. Leaflet, poster] Place of publication if ascertainable or location the medium was viewed: Publisher if available or date the information was viewed.

---

EXAMPLE

WORKS OF ART

CITING WORKS OF ART

To cite a work of art in your text you may include the title of the work and the date of creation as well as the artist’s name if these are important to the point you are making. Include the abbreviation c. if this is how the date is given in an exhibition catalogue or other source. This stands for “circa” and is used when the exact date of creation is not known by art historians.

EXAMPLE

Artist name (year of production)

Tanguy is thought to have been inspired as an artist by Portrait of Apollinaire as a Premonition (Chirico, c.1914).

REFERENCING WORKS OF ART

Works of art should be referenced as follows:

EXAMPLE

Artist name (Year of production) Title (in italics).

Medium, Size, Location of exhibition.

Chirico, Giorgio de (c.1914) Portrait of Apollinaire as a Premonition 1914. Oil on canvas, 81.5 x 65 cm, National Museum of Modern Art, Pompidou Centre, Paris.

ORIGINAL WORK OF ART SHOWING IN A TEMPORARY EXHIBITION

To cite this information you include:

EXAMPLE

The artist’s surname and year the work was produced.

On entering the gallery the viewer is confronted with this piece (Parker, 2007).

REFERENCING A WORK OF ART SHOWING IN A TEMPORARY EXHIBITION

Original works of art that are showing in a temporary exhibition should be referenced as follows:

EXAMPLE

Artist’s surname, Initial. (Year of production) Title (in italics). Medium, Size (if given), At: Location of exhibition. Dates of exhibition.

REPRODUCTION IN A BOOK

CITING A REPRODUCTION IN A BOOK

To cite a reproduction you should include:

EXAMPLE

The artist, the year the work was produced, the author and date of the book and the page it was reproduced on.

EXAMPLE

Klee (1929) in Partsch (2000:47) can be seen to have used...

REFERENCING A REPRODUCTION IN A BOOK

Reproductions in books should be referenced as follows:

EXAMPLE

SOURCES WITH NO AUTHOR

IMPORTANT: There may be rare instances where no author’s name is present and the information was not produced by an organisation. You may come across examples of this in both printed and internet sources. In these instances the instructions below should be used.

CITING A SOURCE WITH NO AUTHOR

If the piece of work states ‘Anonymous’ or ‘Anon’ on the title page then cite the item as follows:

Anonymous/Anon and the date of publication.

EXAMPLE:

There was great speculation about the author of Primary Colours (Anonymous, 1996).

DIRECT QUOTES

When citing a direct quote from a source with no author you would present the quote in the correct format for the type of source (i.e. for a book, journal, webpage etc.)

For all other examples of sources where no author’s name or organisation’s name is present use the following format:

Author unknown and the date of publication.

FICTIONAL EXAMPLE:

It is not always possible to locate an author’s name on the source (Author unknown, 2008)

DIRECT QUOTES

When citing a direct quote from a source with an unknown author you would present the citation in the correct format for the type of source (i.e. for a book, journal, webpage etc.)

REFERENCING A SOURCE WITH NO AUTHOR

Depending on the source that you had used you would replace the author/ organisation’s name with either ‘Anonymous’ or ‘Author unknown’ as follows:

BOOK EXAMPLE:
